Chapel Street is the home of many eclectic boutiques and shops. Perfect for holiday shopping! Visit newhavenshops.com for more information.

New Haven has many more acclaimed areas to dine including New Haven's own "Little Italy," the historic Wooster Street and home of Pepe's Pizzeria. New Haven's pizza is a tradition in itself. Visitors travel far and wide to experience why we call our pies: Apizza, and with dozens of pizzerias you have plenty to choose your favorite.

Other must stops include Upper State Street- home of Modern, the trendy Broadway District, and water front dining on Long Wharf Drive.
